Peekskill Chief of Police Thought He Had Rev. J. K. Cooke.

SHERIFFS HURRIED UP

Wire to Hempstead Stirred Nassau County Officials to Act Quickly.

Pockskill, after keeping the wires warm same day on which the Ontarian left ankle and miner bruises came out peacefully away again in their buggy. half an hour before three Hempstead

Not until two o'clock this morning did the indefatigable Chief of Police of Perkskill succeed in bringing Assistant District-Attorney Bennett to the other end of the wire in Bennett's home and account the Centre's benoutry fold headnett incre wasn't any doubt about it—he had Gooke and Miss Whaley where he could put his hands on them. In the head of the head

Near President's Wife.

Fair Paked On.

Fair P Pair Passod On.

LINERS HELPLESS IN BIG ICE FIELD: MANY IN PERIL.

Three Big Steamers Held Fast Off Canadian Coast Cannot Be Reached.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 4 .- Three large Montreal and St. Lawrence service have main in her apartment as much as tempts to pierce the impenetrable bar- able limp.

All because an innecent gentleman Capt Mear, from London and Havre five weeks as a result travelling along the Hudson River with for Montreal, which was forced into "Mabelle is extreme his daughter and taking subscriptions this port yesterday to land her six back riding," said her mother to ar his daughter and taking subscriptions line port state of a religious publication looked some-for a religious publication looked some-thing like Jers C. Cooke, the fugitive bedded in the ice-fields, he could see she exhibits the daring and horsemanrector who eloped from Hempstead two large steamers. One was the Alian with seventeen-year-old Floretta What lines Ontarian, from London for Montey, there was a lot of excitement today in Peckakill, in New York and over liner which Capi. Mear thought was stumbled and Mabelle was pitched over liner which capitally and the plains. She was racing with her friend, Miss Shaw, when her horse stumbled and Mabelle was pitched over liner which capitally and the the Vancouver, which sailed for Mon-treal from Liverpool on April 20, the steamer Ionian, which is also believed to be fast in the ice. The Ionian arrived here April 27 from Liverpool, which port she left April 18, and salled from here

She has not since been reported, and

IN PERIL WHEN YACHT HIT TUG

Flagstaff of Sylph, Knocked from Place, Crashes Near President's Wife.

MABELLE GILMAN ORDERED TO KEEP OUIETLY AT HOME

Injury to Her Ankle Causes Her to Limp and She Must Rest.

summoned two distinguished surgeons Cabot Strait, between Newfeudland and to the Hotel Gotham and after making ape Breton, and other liners in the an examination she was ordered to re been forced to land passengers and sible and to avoid standing on the infreight at this port, after ineffectual at- jured limb. She walks with a notice

"Mabelle is extremely fond of horse otherwise uninjured."

Corporation does not neglect his fiancee for any great part of the day, and teir and at the family gathering they disofficials arrived with a warrant, charg- on the 25th for Quebec with a thousand the decorating of their new Fifth avenue Cooke with abduction.

Proprietor Also Sleuthed.

The comedy dated from yesterday it is thought that she, too, must be at the mercy of the ice fields somewhere in the tiuli of St. Lawrence.

The fields stretch across Cabot Strait for a distance of a little over fifty and to add to the dangers of navigation a thick fog hangs over the largest hotel in Peekskill. The man coast.

She has not since been reported, and it is thought that she, too, must be at the mercy of the ice fields somewhere in honeymoon will be spent on a private yacht which Mr. Corey has chartered, and the tius distance of a little over fifty miles, and to add to the dangers of navigation a thick fog hangs over the long party will be made up from the coast.

Confusion Results When Passengers Swarmed to Dock To-Day.

their inability to get word to the eight the remains of his faithful assistant and hundred and more steerage passengers friend. planning to sail on the Kroonland, due From conversations he held with variout for Antwerp to-day, that the sailing had been postpened until to-morrow ing had been postpened until to moon, it appears that Dean Finite was afternoon at 2 o'clock. The passengers undecided whether to go to Ithaca or came down to the dock in swarms in lew York. He wanted a rest for a the driving rain early this morning, couple of days in the absence of the

DEAN HUFFCUT'S SUICIDE A BLOW TO GOV. HUGHES

Shot Himself While Alone on Deck of Albany Boat Last Night, a Gale Blowing at the Time.

Ernest W. Huffcut, personal counsel of Gov. Hughes, former Dean of the Cornell University Law School, and one of the foremost authorities on constitutional and international law in the United States, shot himself through the head on the steamboat C. W. Morse between Albany and New York last night and his body was found on the arrival of the Morse here to-day. Dean Huffcut was mentally deranged from overwork in connection with his official duties at Albany.

Gov. Hughes, who arrived in New York to-day from Elmira to review the Seventy-first Regiment, went to the Hotel Astor where he was the neighborhood. Her maiden name informed of the suicide of Dean Huffcut. He was profoundly shocked by the news, for Dean Huffcut was not only his counsel, but his close personal friend. The Governor hurried to the pier of the People's line to do what he could in assisting the stricken family.

"One Must Have His Own Way.

one must have his own and coperage.
You must stay and co what is necessary. Affectionately, ERNEST.

Broke News to Sister,

Drafted Public Utilities Bill. Dean Huffout, since the first of the year, when he took the place of per-sonal counsel to the Governor, had been and a soung women to the Reside, the miles, and to add to the danger of the same and the grant properties of the same from the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas. He grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas and the grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas and the grid will be said to the said they were from Poughteepas and to the said to the said they will be said to the said the held in the Equitable Life Assurance Society. It is understood that he asked for a cash-surrender value, directing that the check be sent to him at Ithaca. This indicates that he did not contemplate suicide at that time.

In addition to looking after the trying details of the Public Utilities bill Dean Huffout was engaged in examining hundreds of other bills that came to the Governor's office for approval. He had size on his mind intricate questions connected with the proposed reapportionment legislation.

Huffout was engaged in examining hundreds of other bills that came to the Governor's office for approval. He had size on his mind intricate questions connected with the proposed reapportionment legislation.

Hughes Much Affected.

By the time Gov. Hughes raached the People's line pier the body of Dean Huffout's line and broke down while identifying in Eighth avenue. The Governor went there and broke down while identifying in the remains of his faithful assistant and friend.

From conversations he held with various prices of the proposed reapports of the state of the proposed reapports of the state of the proposed reapports of the proposed

The 'longshoremen's strike assumed serious proportions for the officials of the Red Star line this morning through the Red Star line this morning through

COUSINS DENY MME. DE MASSY IS A BARONESS

Simon's Alleged Slayer Is a Canadian.

ness Anisia De Massey, the convicted murderess of Gustava Simon, in News York, is no longer a baroness, for she was positively identified to-day by Worcester relatives as Dela Benoit, born in St. Cesar, Canada, but brought up and educated here. The relatives are Mrs. Walter H.

Maltesta and Mrs. Henry Foisy, both dreadful deed." said Mrs. Maltesta, of Maltesta, a man much respected in

A Native of Canada.

"Baroness" De Massy, from doc-

some some fifteen years ago to travel threads of her many adventures are hard to gather together.

Mrs. Foisy, wite of Henry Foisy, yard manager for the Bay State Coal Company, stated that it was rumored that she married a French nobleman by the name of Francis De Massy, who died a year later under suspicious circumstances, but Mrs. Foisy doesn't take stock in the story that she rightfully acquired the title which she bears.

"One Must Have His Own Way." Ine other letter was andreased to this Lillian Huncut, No. 12 East Forty-sixth street, and read as follows: Friday, May 1. Dear Sister: I left for Ithaca tomight, but decided to take my bour down to you in New York in order that it might be dremated. You will attend to that for me. If you have any difficulty call on my old friend, De Letter, who will assist you. I am going down the river and enjoying the prospect of going out to sea. The ashes I leave bealind may be disposed of at present as the others prefer, but eventually you will take them to Ea.clawn. And do not permit any public services of any sort anywhere. If the immediate family want private services in H. (Blughamton), let it be soon, but have no one else. I was never so gikd to rest in my life. We must be quiet and live so. I've been thinking all the way down the river of some one; lines: Sweet after [oi] is aleep: Then whersfore sorrow for him who sleeps And will not wake to-morrow? Goodbye. I don't want you of any of the others to be troubled about this. I've really postponed it often on account of others, but this time I am doing it. After all, in the end. one must have his own way of escape. You must stay and 66 what is necessary. Affectionately CRIPPLE JUMPS FROM WORKHOUSE TIER; ENDS LIFE

Bob" Lafield, News Seller at Brooklyn Bridge, a Suicide.

Mike fluricut, to wnom Dean Huffcut left a letter, is engaged in educational work, and lives in the apartment nouse at Nos. 187 and 18 East Forty-sixth street. The news of her brother's suicide was broken to her by an Evening World reporter. She bore the shock with fortitude, and immediately began preparations to go to the pier of the steambout company and claim to body.

A Suicide.

Patrick Dougherty, of No. 35 Frank-lin avenue, Brooklyn, went to the Jefferson Market Court to-day and obtained from Magistrate Wahle an order steambout company and claim to for the discharge from the workhouse body.

of swarthy complexion floating of swariny complession hoading in the Harlem River at the foot of One Hun-dred and Seventieth street to-de). The drowned man was about twenty-one years old a feet 5 inches tall and weighed 125 pounds. He had on blue overalls-and heavy black shoes.

a

WOMAN WITH PISTOL KEEPS GUARD OVER SON

Worcester Dispatch Says Mrs. Lilla M. Tichenor, in Due on the New York East Orange Home, Defies Court.

ions at her fine home in East Orange

She has armed herself with a businesslike revolver and says that if she is forced to an extremity sine will use it in defense of what she regards as her maternal rights; and these she declares will take precedence to the laws clares will take precedence to the laws

"I mean to shoot to kill, too," said interested correspondence with her Mrs. Tichenor, "If any man in the from time to time. I am a cousin of world attempts to take my child from

His wife inherited a large estate

One of the boys, Joseph Benoit, six years old, away from the family.

robbed me of my first, my husband kid-

"But I am ready to make the last stand, and if this man, or any of the minions of the law, dare come here they will find a woman who is not afraid to fight for the justice she has been unable to get in the consis. It is a hitter commentary on the law to eay that I was not permitted to give the real facts in this controversy."

"Talls bay is much too young to leave

"Talls boy is much too young to leave his mother's sheltering arms, and no law in the world can pass intelligently on this point. A mother must always he the last court of appeal in an in-stance of this kind." Little Norman was playing about the house, but there was never an instant when Mrs. Tichenor permitted him to get out of her sight. She said that if she found such extremity necessary she would turn her house into a fortress in order to protect the boy from his father.

HEAVY SNOWSTORM FOR UP-STATE FOLK

ture, set in here early to-day and con-

AUR-MIN-O CURES DRUNKENNESS

ROBINSON'S Patent Barley The Only Infant Food

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS. Property of the second second

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.

"The Berkshires" of New Jersey, only fourteen miles from New York by rail or automobile, is every modern device for indoor convenience and

SILENT SMITH'S BODY TO ARRIVE HERE TO-MORROW

Central at 7.02 A.M.-To Be Buried Tuesday.

The body of James Henry Smith, the Jeracy court to surrender her three-year-old son Norman to her husband, while on a yaching cruise last month. Mrs. Lilia M. Tichenor made prepara- will arrive in this city at 7.02 o'clock to prevent the carrying out of Central Railroad. Mr. Smith's body the order. She is keeping a close watch, arrived in San Francisco several days and no one is permitted to approach ago on a Pacific Mail steamship. It the house unless known to Mrs. Tich- will be buried in Woodlawn Cametery on Tuesday.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The body of James.
H. Smith, of New York, passed through.
Chicago to-day on its way to New York.
City. The body was accompanied by Mrs. Smith, Miss Stewart, daughter of Mrs. Smith, Eugene Zimmerman, of Cimcinnati, and the Duke and Duchess of Manchester. William Rhinelander.
Stewart, son of Mrs. Smith, met her at the depot here when the train arrived,
Mr. Zimmerman said that the funeral

$250. Reward

arrost and conviction of any junk dealer or other person pullty, under the provisions of Section 550 of the Penal Code of the State of How York; of criminally receiving any property belonging to this Company.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE OO. 15 Day St., New York

The Oriental Store. Individual

Parasols Parasols that reflect your personality and are exclusive in the silk or linen covering or design of handle are made here after your own

Handles of Carved Ivory, Jade, Silver and Pearl.

Broadway. Between 18th and 19th Streets

CONSTIPATION

Dadway's

RADWAY & CO., 55 Elm St., N. Y. sure to get "RADWAY'S."

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

AUCTION SALE. Atlantic Ave., Brooklyn.

Valuable Building Plot. 50 x 100,

South Side 100 Feet East of Kingston Ave. SALE ABSOLUTE. ..

MAY 9, 1907, at 12 o'Clock, noon,

in the REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE BLDG. 189 Montague St., Brooklyn.

WM. H. SMITH, Auctionect, For further particulars apply GOETTING & DRENNAN Attorneys, 189 Montague St., or luctioneer, 9 Willoughby St., Brooklyn.

GRANT.—On Friday, May 3, in his 8th year, EDWARD, son of John J. and Catherine Grant (Mulady).

Funeral from his late residence. No. 646 64th 8t. Brockley, Sunday, S. K.

M. Interment at Holy Cross Commune.

This beautiful, new hotel, located in

NOW OPEN

Large, well-furnished rooms supplied with comfort. Ample facilities for outdoor enjoyment. Grill rooms, tennis courts and automobile garage. Descriptive book upon request. Five minutes from D., L. and W. Station by trailey. THE MONTCLAIR HOTEL CO.

P. BURNEY, Manager, N. d. MONTCLAIR, N. d. Phone 1171 J-Bloomfold.